It has incidentally come to my knowledge that you occasionally make complaints because of the small sums received for your Dairy skins. The fault is your own, for if you would take them off and would rarely find a skin that would bring you less than 50 cents, and a great many of them would bring you 60 Please call. E. G. WILSON. them would bring you 60, 70 and even 80 cents each.

Poor skins, like poor butter, are poor property and bring a poor price. It will cost you only a penny for a postal card on which to send me your ad dress, to secure full printed directions as to the proper method of taking off and caring postpaid, if you will send me your name and so request.

In most of the towns of Vermont I have buyers but in localities where I have none I would suggest that a half dozen farmers club together and ship their skins in quantities of 25 or more in which case I will pay all freights after delivery at R. R. depot. I cannot allow you wholesale prices in towns where I have a buyer but where I have none I will gladly arrange with any reliable farmer who is willing to attend to the matter of collecting skins taken off in his vicinity, and in such case will of course allow the buyer's commission.

YOUR JOB PRINTING

Every day is a fresh beginning.
Every morn is the world made new.
You who are weary of sorrow and sinning,
Here is a beautiful hope for you— A hope for me and a hope for you. All the past things are past and over.

The tasks are done and the tears are shed Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover; esterday now is a part of forever.

Bound up in a sheaf, which God holdstight,
Vith glad days, and sad days, and bad days, their blight.

Let them go, since we cannot re-live them, Cannot undo and cannot atone; God in his mercy, receive, forgive them! Only the new days are our own; To-day is ours, and to-day alone. Here are the skies all burnished brightly, Here are the skies all ournshess brightly.

Here is the spent earth all re-born.

Here are the tired limbs springing lightly

To face the sun and to share with the morn
In the chrism of dew and the cool of dawn.

Every day is a fresh beginning;
Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain,
And, spite of old sorrow and old singing,
And puzzle forecasted and possibly pain,
Take heart with the day, and begin again -Susan Coolidge
